INCOG ISLAND LIGHT
ESTABLISHED.

NOTICE is hereby given that Incoq Island Light was exhibited for the first time at sunset on the 1st instant. The illuminating apparatus is Dipniric, Revolving, Group-Flashing of the Fourth Order, showing double white flashes at intervals of 23 seconds. The Lighthouse stands on the western extremity of the western island of the Incoq Group and the light, which is elevated 140 feet above the level of the sea, should be visible in clear weather at a distance of 18 1/2 nautical miles. The light is obscured to the south-westward by the small islet to the S.E. of Fusan Island on a bearing of approximately N. 51° E. but shows a small arc of about 1' between this islet and the main island. It is also obscured on various bearings by the easterly islands of the Incoq Group between the bearings of about N. 71 1/2° W. through West to about S. 49° W. All bearings are Magnetic and from sea-level. The tower is a steel structure with a total height from base to lantern of 61 feet. The tower and dwellings are painted white.

into this question of Light.

There is no light so good or so cheap as the British-made

WELSBACH
Welsbach Light is the combination of the wonderful Welsbach Kern Gas Burner with Mantles of British manufacture. Only in this way do you obtain the light that is the lightest, softest and cheapest. There is no other burner, except the Welsbach Kern No. 3, which will give you a 75 candle power light with a gas consumption of only 3 ft. per hour.

Every genuine British-made Welsbach burner and mantle bears the Registered Trade Mark "AUR."

Welsbach Light has been adapted to every conceivable purpose from tiny cable lights to the Storm-proof Self-Intensifying Lamps of 600 candle Power. It is self-contained, no special traps or clumsy apparatus required.

All who desire more light at less cost should therefore write for particulars and Catalogues of Welsbach Light to the Sole Agents in China of the Welsbach Incandescent Gas Light Co., Ltd., London.

HOME POLITICS.

Probable Election Next Year.

A London correspondent writes: The Liberal Government are acting boldly up to their promises on the Licensing question by endeavouring to get back into the hands of the State the monopoly value. They are, however, losing ground very fast as the result, for the publicans are making it fearfully hot for them, and I regret to say the electors are following the advice of the brewers and publicans. Tariff Reform is making great headway. Trade is declining and with it the obdurate is setting in against the Government. The Chancellor of the Exchequer has just given the first instalment of Old Age Pensions—5/- a week to all men over 70 years of age. It is a start in the right direction but a very poor thing though. Still it is a start and indicates which way the wind is blowing. It looks like an election next year and if so, we shall see a Parliament, I believe, in the hands of the Labour Party and the Irish Party.

MURDEROUS MALAYS.

Kill Three Policemen.

We (B. N. Borneo Herald) regret to have to report that on the 4th inst. Paitan Station near Jambongan was attacked and raided, the facts at the time of going to press are as follows:—

"It appears that on the 2nd inst. L. C.
299 Kekar Singh together with P. C. 450 Anjun proceeded to Kampong Batangan to serve a warrant to arrest one Kalakau who had openly disobeyed the orders of the D. O. The two police were accompanied by one Musah a close relative of Kalakau's and another native. At 4 o'clock the same afternoon Musah and his companion returned to the Police Station but neither L. C. Kekar Singh or P. C. 450 Anjun came back and Musah informed P. C. 187 Pagat Singh that they had been killed, when attempting to serve the warrant on Kalakau. Apparently when Musah returned to the Police Station at Paitan he attempted to ascend the steps of the house but before doing so Pagat Singh told him to lay down his weapon, a parang, which he did. He, Musah, then entered the Police Station and seized Pagat Singh's rifle, clubbing him with it from behind, he then made a slashing blow at him with his parang cutting him across the right shoulder and back. He fell down and managed to crawl into the jungle, and took protection in the house of one Urui, who managed to get him away in his prahu to Trusan Sugit where he gave information of what had occurred to the L. C. in charge.
Pagat Singh was subsequently brought to Sandakan where he is now being attended by the P.M.O. Musah and his followers numbering about forty males in all have looted all the kedais at Singapangan (Paitan) they also took three Government rifles and ammunition from the Police Station.
Active measures are being taken and it is to be hoped that the offenders will soon be caught. The list of casualties is as follows:
L. C. 299 Kekar Singh killed.
P. C. 450 Anjun "
" 194 Ongkoh "
" 187 Pagat Singh wounded.
P. C. Pagat Singh in Sandakan Hospital is, we are glad to say on the high road to recovery.
Later News:—Mr Brackenbury the D.O., reconnoitring with 4 Dyaks came into touch with Musah's gang who fired on him wounding one Dyak. Captain Bond and 37 police arrived at Jambongan by the s.s.
Labuan on the 14th inst.

"DON'T DO IT AGAIN."

Mr Secretary Taft, of the United States, says he was "once a guest at a hotel in a small western town.

"I was assigned to a room. There was no water or towel in the room, and I rang," says the Secretary. "There was no reply.
I rang again. Still no reply. And again and again, and yet again I rang, and finally a waiter appeared.
"This waiter was a robust man, of stern and forbidding aspect.
"Did you ring?" he said, in a rumbling bass voice.
"I did," I answered.
"Well, don't do it again," said the waiter with a menacing scowl, as he withdrew."

HOW TO DO MORE BUSINESS.

MANY AMERICANS have built up great commercial enterprises, by the use of Trade-news items supplied by our CLIPPING BUREAU. Chinese merchants can do the same if they follow American methods.
We clip business news from more than 60,000 papers monthly, and send these items to you while there is good prospect of supplying what is needed and doing business.
We can send you news and clippings on any line of business, or any subject, and you will be able to know, IN TRUTH, just what American business methods are like, and where there are openings for Chinese merchandise.
Suppose, for instance, you are a maker of Pottery: our Clipping Bureau might find in some paper an item saying that a big wholesale Pottery concern was being organized in a certain town—i.e., of course, would send you that business-news item, and give you a chance to do business with that firm.
We can do just the same in any line of business, for there is always something being done that it might pay Chinese merchants to know.
We can supply you with advertisements of all the great American merchants and manufacturers, so that you may assimilate their ideas and increase your business in China the way we do here.
To avoid delay, send ten dollars (Max.) for one month's trial order. Subsequent rate can be determined according to service.
It won't cost you money to send for our fine Book which tells all about our service and how much it costs. Send for it today.

PERSIA.

PERSIA is at present going through an experience similar, but aggravated, to that of Russia in regard to the striving after freer political conditions. The Persian Parliament was created amid popular enthusiasm and newspapers the world over delightedly hailed this fresh demonstration of the awakening of the Orient. The jubilation was premature, as was the case in regard to Russia. Experience has shown that political changes to be lasting must be gradual. France changed her political institutions in a night, so to speak—swept away in blood the autocratic regime and established a reign of liberty—but of license. The result has been that even to-day the French race is divided into Republicans and Royalists, although it must be said that at the present moment the latter are a negligible quantity. For the time being it looks as if the Republic will endure but he would be a daring prophet who would declare that there will never again be a monarchy in France. Russia and Persia have both tried to take a short cut to the political millennium and they have both failed equally. To suddenly give to a people who have for centuries been governed autocratically the franchise is like giving a child a box of matches and turning him loose in a powder magazine. Disaster is bound to ensue. The gift of the franchise to the people of Russia and Persia has not increased their happiness. In those two countries neither the rulers nor the ruled found it possible to sud-denly adapt themselves to new conditions. The attempt to do so has resulted in continued recrimination and deplorable bloodshed. Had the change been brought about gradually we would have heard nothing of these terrible happenings which have added so many blood-stained pages to the annals of the two countries in question. At the present moment the reactionaries both in Russia and Persia are in the ascendant. But this cannot endure. The argument of artillery may serve the Tsar or the Shah for a time, but it is not conclusive. The use of force on one side is merely an invitation to the use of force by the other. While it is impossible for the reformers in Persia to employ artillery to emphasize their views they still have the dagger and the bomb. That they will use these instruments of protest is beyond doubt. The situation in Persia would be of much graver importance to us were it not for the much-abused Anglo-Russian Agreement. Russia has long looked with covetous eyes at the Shah's dominions and, but for the Agreement it is probable that she would not be able to resist the present opportunity. But, as things are, if there is to be intervention, it must be by Great Britain associated with Russia and neither country will annex any territory.
Nevertheless the position is sufficiently grave. The ties of trade have bound the nations so closely together that it is impossible for one to be in a state of disorder without all the other countries who have relations with it being affected. It is, therefore, with a certain amount of anxiety that we must await news of the development of affairs in Persia.

not produced the desired effect of improving the position of the industry.
After two days' conference, on the 13th suspend operations in the match factories on the 1st, 6th, 11th, 16th, 21st, and 26th of every month and to reduce the working determined to send some delegates to the Islands of the Southern Ocean in order to put before the Chinese merchants of those Islands a scheme for a Volunteer Fleet which would act as a mail-carrying line in time of peace but would be available as a

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

The Portuguese Minister having presented an autograph letter from the King of Portugal to the Emperor the Grand Council has drafted a reply and has handed some to the Grand Secretariat to be sealed with the Imperial seal.Several Provincial schools in China which have been founded by the government have had to close on account of lack of funds. The Board of Education has instructed the Commissioners of Education to investigate and report on the most useful of these schools for the carrying on of which appropriations will be made.The Nagoya Guild of Match Manufacturers raised the price of matches by 10 per cent. on the 10th instant, but it has not produced the desired effect of improving the position of the industry.
After two days' conference, on the 13th and 14th instant, the guild agreed to suspend operations in the match factories
of every month and to reduce the working hours from 12 to 8 a day for the purpose of reducing the output.We learn that His Highness Prince Ching, President of the Ministry of Agriculture, Industry and Commerce, has determined to send some delegates to the
time of peace but would be available as a transport service in time of war. It is understood that most of the Peking authorities regard the scheme with great favor.By kind permission of Major E. R. L.
Chitty and the officers, the band of the 100th M. L. I. Regiment under Bandmaster T. C. Gabriel will play the following excellent programme at the Kowloon Hotel to-morrow night, during and after dinner on the 1st:—March, "Grand Imperial";

A WISE DOCTOR.

WATER TICKET-COLLECTOR SMITH OF BOMBAY HAD RHEUMATISM HIS PHYSICIAN RECOMMENDED DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS. THEY CURED HIM. RHEUMATISM SUFFERERS READ HIS STORY.
MR. C. H. J. Smith, a ticket-collector on the Great Indian Peninsula Railway, related the following facts to a reporter who called at his home, St. Peter's School, Manzanor, Bombay, just lately.
"In the course of my duty as a ticket-collector, I am exposed to all sorts of weather, often having to work in the heavy rain. About two years ago I began to get frightful pains in the knees and ankles, and after trying various medicines without getting any better, I had to go to a doctor for advice and assistance. He diagnosed my complaint as Rheumatism, and prescribed Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, telling me that MANY OF HIS PATIENTS had been cured by these Pills of Rheumatism and other complaints.

Exposed to all weathers
"So I commenced to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and after the second bottle I found that my pains had lessened and that I could walk with great ease and comfort. The continued use of the Pills for some time longer not only cured the Rheumatism, but built up my system, making me feel stronger and more robust than before. I have lived most of my life in India, where Englishmen who have a baby, or have been subjected to this hot and trying climate for years. I feel that it is only through Dr. Williams' Pink Pills that I have been able to keep to my work on the Railway."
MY PRESENT SPLendid HEALTH to their use and am thankful for the good they have done me. My testimony may be published for the information of others who are distressed with Rheumatism.
Wet and cold—aggravate Rheumatism but they do not cause it; the cause is a fault in the blood. The reason why Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People cure Rheumatism is because they not only direct on the blood, purifying and at the same time strengthening it, and thus the poisonous Uric acid is driven from the system. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have cured not only thousands of cases of Rheumatism, often in its severest form, but they are also the proved remedy for many other ailments due primarily to an impure or weak blood supply, such as Anemia, Malaria, Indigestion, Liver Complaint, Headaches, Early Decay, Nervous Debility, Scurvy, Paralysis, Beri-Beri, Pimples, Eczema, and many other skin diseases, as well as those special ailments which trouble ladies between youth and middle age. Obtainable at most shops where medicines are sold, they can also be had direct from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Cambridge Bridge, Singapore, 4 bottles for 88/- or 1 bottle for 22/-, post free. Men broken down by overwork, excesses, or residence in unhealthy climates are speedily restored by their use.
